Stacey Kemp
County Clerk

The District Clerk and County Clerk are requesting the approval to enter into a Professional Services Agreement with iDocket.com to provide the public with web access to redacted court documents. There is no cost to Collin County. Through a direct subscription with iDocket.com, customers are able to view and print court documents on-line, thus eliminating the need to come to the Courthouse. iDocket.com also provides redaction services which will help protect data from identity theft. Redaction is currently not a feature available in the Odyssey case management system.

Currently, over 70 counties in Texas have an agreement with iDocket.com, and we believe the citizens of Collin County will benefit from this service.
